Topic media literacy

18 Media literacy is one of the strategies schools should implement-part of the recommendations contained in this new report:
American Psychological Association Task Force on Sexualization of Girls

16 I spent the entire day at Dent MS during professional development day.
During the morning faculty gathering in the school's new cafeteria, I gave a talk on the importance of media literacy in a 21st century education. I also conducted two workshops: one for English teachers and another for Social Studies teachers.
