Literacy: Piercing Content and Who Controls T† Media literacy is our strongest tool against propaganda and manipulation in today's mediasaturated environment. As someone who analyzes the media regularly, author Jennifer L. Pozner created a 13-letter mnemonic of the words "M.E.D.I.A. L.I.T.E.R.A.C.Y." It's her guide to understanding the goals of corporate media, breaking down its biases and arming ourselves as consumers.

SOLVING THE PROBLEM OF CHILDHOOD OBESITY WITHIN A GENERATION

White House Task Force on Childhood Obesity Report to the President

U.S. Cracks Down on Marketing of Unhealthy Foods The report says food companies should extend their current self-imposed regulations to cover all forms of marketing to children, and food retailers should avoid in-store marketing that promotes unhealthy products to children. It says all media and entertainment companies should limit the licensing of their popular characters to food and beverage products that are healthy.
