

2011: September

	Truth, lies and the internetDownload for free
 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2011 Views of the News Media: 1985-2011 Press Widely Criticized, But Trusted More than Other Information Sources <small>FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Andrew Kohut President, Pew Research Center Carroll Doherty and Michael Dimock Associate Directors Betsy Kester Director of Public Research 1650 L St., N.W., Suite 700 Washington, DC 20036 Tel: (202) 414-4500 Fax: (202) 414-4501 www.pewresearch.org</small>	Press Widely Criticized, But Trusted More than Other Information Sources (new Pew Study)
	Jon Stewart Compares 'Daily Show' to Fox News: 'We're Both Expressions of Dissatisfaction' Host also opens up about disappointment with Obama and the problems with the 24/7 news media in new cover story

Future of the First Amendment
2011 Survey of High School Students and Teachers

Commissioned by the
John S. and James L. Knight Foundation
Prepared by
Dr. Kenneth Dauntich, The Post Group
Fourth in a Series

 Knight Foundation

Knight Foundation Future of the First Amendment report on Social Media finds support among educators for teaching digital media literacy

The tenth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks on America is all over the news; in fact, how the news media covered and portrayed the attacks is a big part of the current coverage.

Birth of Image - Een Bekropte Oids naar Mediawijsheid

Birth of Image
A Concise Guide to Media Literacy

This collection of articles is the celebration of a unique educational process. The Birth of Image project has successfully achieved two goals. First, it combined personal growth and media education for and with young people. Second, it developed a methodology for the instruction of active media literacy, including the latest chapter in the history of media: the social media frenzy.