

Media and Politics

This website has previously been recommended by EDUTOPIA; School Library Monthly; The Living Room Candidate, INFOHIO, "Blueprint for Democracy" and "Cable in The Classroom" magazine.

	The Role of Media in Politics/Elections: Helping Students Understand Media's Influence Frank Baker, Media Educator ©2007-2023
---	---	---

Introduction

Increasingly today, getting elected means skillful use of the media by the candidates to get their message across. Politicians now employ experts in social media, marketing, advertising and TV to convey their messages to voters, sometimes spending millions of dollars in the process.

It is critically important that students, our future voters and leaders, learn to understand the role and influence of media in the political process. (Do your students understand, for example, what constitutes Dark Money, what Super PACS are, or Campaign Finance Reform efforts?)

To that end, many state standards for Social Studies and Citizenship include the need for students to understand how media influences politics and decision making.

This website is devoted primarily to the 30-second campaign "spot" so common in American elections. The site is designed to provide teachers with the tools they need to introduce political campaign advertising to their students. Another goal is to assist teachers who want to help their students become aware of the unique techniques of persuasion used in these ads. To start, click the Background/Introduction/Standards link in the left hand column.

NEW: 11 Ways to Fight Election 2023 Disinformation
Political Ad Spending for 2023 To Top \$10 Billion
How much does that ad cost on my local TV station?

DOWNLOAD: Political Ad Analysis Worksheet

DOWNLOAD: Debate Watchers Analysis Worksheet

Fact Checkers Guide to Campaign Ads \(WaPo\)

On TV: American Swamp: Dark Money \(MSNBC\)

How to read political images of candidates

Study Shows Visual Framing By Media In Debates Affects Public Perception

Lesson Plan: What Makes A Good Campaign Ad? \(CSPAN\)

Where to Locate Past Presidential Commercials

Ideas/Readings/Activities for Teaching The Election

Analyzing 50 Years of American Political Advertising

View Smart To Vote Smart: Analyzing TV's Role in Events & Advertising

How To Watch & Analyze The Fall Presidential Debates

How A Political Ad Gets Made

Decoding The Ads: Emotions That Drive Voter Decisions

NEW: History of Political Advertising (infographic)

Track TV Ads in The 2016 Presidential Campaign

Everything You Need to Know About Political Advertising

Revised: Who's Winning The Money Race

Broadcasters Want Campaigns to Buy More Ads

Are Instagram Attacks Ads The Future of Politics?

Recommended Book for Middle & High Schools:

Political Campaigns & Political Advertising: A Media Literacy Guide

Bringing media literacy tools to bear on political campaign coverage and political advertising just as the Internet explodes as a political force, this book will help students and older citizens negotiate the age of political spin. Amazon reviewer: "This is an excellent, easy-to-understand, well-illustrated book on political communications.”

This comic from Non Sequitur is used here for educational purposes.