

State Standards: Idaho

IDAHO

Language Arts Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, Viewing VIEWING- "Critical viewing skills will provide the student with the ability to distinguish between fact and fiction in all forms of visual materials, to understand the differences between electronic and print media, and to enrich their language skills. The broad goal of viewing instruction is to assist students to become thoughtful and reflective comprehenders and producers of poetic, narrative, expository, and persuasive visual text found in film, television, computers and other media such as magazines and advertising." Spring 2003: 11th Grade ELA Suggested activity: "view and discuss a contemporary film. such asThe Fugitive, which incorporates extensive flashback" URL:http://www.sde.state.id.us/admin/coursesofstudy/docs/LanguageArts/Grade11/Grade11COS.pdf 9th Grade ELA http://www.sde.state.id.us/admin/coursesofstudy/docs/LanguageArts/Grade9/Grade9COS.pdf Suggested activity: "Write a scene from a story as a movie script: include actions, camera angles, dialogue, and descriptions of the set"	Social Studies Social Studies Grade Level 4th Target Skill 13 Research some of the issues currently facing the local and/or state government Sample Assessment Methods: Read newspapers, watch TV and listen to news on radio and write a report Grade Level-6th Target Skill 12 Evaluate the reliability of information Sample Assessment: Record five news items and interview two adults about the reliability of the information	Health/Prevention Health Secondary 9-12 Standard II Skills Goal: All students will acquire the essential skills to lead a healthful life. Sample Progress Indicators. All students will demonstrate progress in achieving this standard by: 3. Using video technology to develop a one minute commercial comparing and contrasting the fat content of two foods using their product labels.
---	--	---

Copyright 2000 Frank W. Baker